Miami, FL, August 23, 2008 --(PR.com)-- KMPfurniture.com, a premium online retailer of high-quality upscale modern furniture and accessories, today announced a 35% increase in online sales. Based in Miami, Florida, its modern, sheik products have found favor with developers, home buyers, interior designers, and corporate consultants across the globe. KMP has perfected “inexpensive quality.”

Variety has been a main reason for such amazing online growth. Variety of fabrics, designers, and product lines provide the KMP customer with unprecedented options. Like many buyers today, KMP customers are seeking greater value, quality, and customer service for their money. KMP believes “It's as much about people, as it is about furniture.” This is evident to anyone who has purchased from KMPfurniture.com, as service is priority number one. Whether it is seating, sofas, tables, bedrooms, patio, or lighting, no one has as much to offer the modern shopper.

“Today's shopper requires more than just high-resolution pictures of well-placed furniture pieces within a nice website”, says Rafael Montilla of KMPfurniture.com. “Not only do we provide elegant products but a library of architecture research for every customer.” Montilla continued, “A visitor to our site not only finds what will fit their particular environment, but research on historically great designers, different styles, and view their most famous pieces.” Montilla concluded, “Our clients gain historical perspectives on modern designing.”

Despite a growing list of online providers, KMPfurniture.com is poised for greatest success. Their skilled consultants, combined with global market understanding is attracting even those first-time users of online commerce. KMPfurniture.com has become the new standard.
