London, United Kingdom, August 24, 2008 --(PR.com)-- Celebrity Radio goes live in the US.

After an incredibly successful launch in the UK, www.celebrityradio.co.uk goes live in US.

The online 'station', which officially launches today, contains hundreds of great interviews with big celebrities including Andrea Bocelli, Diana Krall, Michael Buble, The Duchess of York, Shirley Bassey, Danny Gans, Wayne Brady, Amazing Jonathan, Carrot Top and many many more.

The interviews on the site are feature length and so give fans and anybody interested in the celebrity a fantastic opportunity to really get to know them. There is a forum on the site with their upcoming features. Visitors can post questions in the forum and they'll put those questions straight to the stars. This is a great way for fans to interact with their favourite celebs.

The site is free to use and you don't have to register to listen to the interviews.

The site is produced by Daisy Media ltd.
