North Wilkesboro, NC, August 24, 2008 --(PR.com)-- The start-up media company Itechpoint, Inc. (itechpoint.com) launched a big information portal for coupons and offers. Getbestcoupons.com is a website displaying top coupons and discount offers from a variety of brand name merchants. The website is designed to make searching for coupons of interest quick and easy. The website showcases thousands of coupons and offers from hundreds of stores. The home page of Getbestcoupons.com provides the user with all the information needed to understand how the website works and to get started looking for deals. Coupons and discount offers can be in the form of printable coupons to be used at a physical store, coupon codes that can be entered online at a website when making a purchase, or notifications of special offers.

Users of Getbestcoupons.com can search for coupons and offers by category, product, or company. A few examples of searchable categories are computer and software, food and beverage, pet supplies, department stores, office supplies, electronics, tickets, gifts and flowers, home and garden, and wedding. Categories are divided into subcategories to increase search efficiency. Companies that post coupons and offers on Getbestcoupons.com include: Wal-Mart, Office Depot, Apple Store, Gap, Comp USA, HP, ToysRus, Toshiba, Zales, Dollar Rent A Car, Buy.com, Auto Parts Warehouse and many more. There are various travel related offers and coupons from Hotels.com, Travelocity, Orbitz, Cheaptickets, Southwest Vacations, Carnival and many more. Getbestcoupons.com also presents offers from financial institutions. Some of these companies have logos on the home page that can be clicked on to view a list of all the coupons and offers from that company. Another unique way to search the website is by city. Getbestcoupons.com posts coupons and discount offers specific to select, destination cities, such as Las Vegas, Orlando, New York, London, and Paris. Users can also use a search box to search for any product or company. One can use Browse by stores box to get all the coupons of a particular store.

Another convenient service offered to users of Getbestcoupons.com is the ability to save coupons and offers to use or review at a later time. Users that visit Getbestcoupons.com can search for a coupon or offer and can then choose to use the coupon or offer right away by clicking a button that provides a direct link to the store where the purchase can be made. Alternatively, the user can choose to save the coupon or offer in an account to use or review at later time. This service is free and is available to users who register with the website.

Getbestcoupons.com updates coupons and discount offers frequently and allows the user to search for new coupons, expiring coupons and popular coupons. Coupons and offers from more brand name and popular companies will be added on continuous basis. There will be more featured added in future for the convenience of the site users.

Getbestcoupons.com is a great website to visit before heading out to a store or searching countless online stores for the best deal on a product. By saving the consumer time and money and providing sources for specific products, Getbestcoupons.com is a convenient resource to consult before making any purchase.
