

Planet Calling Launch New Website

Planet Calling, a leading provider of low cost international phone calls, has launched a new website.

Cheshire, United Kingdom, August 27, 2008 --(PR.com)-- Planet Calling, a leading provider of low cost international phone calls, has launched a new website. The new site went live on Friday, August 22nd, 2008, and can be viewed at www.planetcalling.com.

The Planet Calling website has several new features, including an enhanced, self-updating rates calculator. For over 1,700 destinations worldwide, the calculator provides a unique rate for a phone call from either a UK mobile or a landline phone. The website also has a new SMS text product for customers who make regular international calls. The text product automatically credits a mobile phone when its balance is low. This allows users to keep the discounted calling rate applied to their mobile without making multiple purchases from the website.

Matt Bullas, Managing Director of Planet Calling, commented: “The new website has an individual rate for both landline and mobile calls to over 1,700 destinations. No matter where in the world our customers are calling, Planet Calling can offer a low cost, exclusive rate targeted to that specific location.”
