

Casa Bonita Music Bringing the Freshest Reggaeton Vibes from the Sands of Puerto Plata to the Clubs of NYC

New York, NY, August 28, 2008 --(PR.com)-- Casa Bonita Music is releasing their much anticipated debut album, Casa Bonita Music Compilation 2008, featuring the hot hits from sizzling Caribbean artist like Como Ol' Vidarte from Mass Histeria, Dime Que Paso from Desconocidos and Shake Your Body Like An M-1 from Top Legrand. Just made available on iTunes, it will hit the stores on September 12, 2008.

The production house of Casa Bonita Music specializes in Reggaeton, Reggae, Romantica and Bachata music with a fresh approach to their musicality, adding the much longed for infusion of soul, rock and sweet melodics that ring true with today's Latin listeners. Muy Caliente.

Casa Bonita Music began in 2006 with President Tommy Mouscardy and Producer Ky Miller with its headquarters in New York and the Dominican Republic where the recording and production took place for the entire album. It is also in the Dominican Republic and Haiti that 5% of all the record sales will go toward charities for the children and residents.

All the artists on Casa Bonita Music Compilation 2008, Mass Histeria, Desconocidos and Top Legrand will begin touring in the United States this fall of 2008.

Casa Bonita Music is releasing their debut album of Casa Bonita Music Compilation 2008 in stores September 12, 2008. With distribution by Antillas Records in New York City and iTunes, the album is packed with fresh beats and already the Bachata 'Mira Mi' is turning heads. Touring begins this fall in New York City.
