

Clear Skies, Great Diving and No Hurricanes in Nassau, Bahamas

Nassau, The Bahamas, September 11, 2008 --(PR.com)-- Stuart Cove's Dive Bahamas is happy to report that Hurricane Ike passed Nassau hundreds of miles to the South leaving them with sunny skies, a light breeze and great diving. This photo was taken this morning as divers boarded one of their new custom 46' Newton dive boats for a two tank wall and wreck dive.

The fall is perfect Bahamas diving weather... Water's warm & clear, weather's balmy and no crowds. What's not to love about Nassau in September and October?

How about a 45% motivation to book a Stuart Cove's Dive Bahamas Vacation? Take a dive trip between now and November 23rd to receive 45% off on qualifying Wyndham hotel accommodations. With Wyndham nightly room rates as low as $126 per night (before taxes), anyone can afford a world-class Bahamas Scuba Diving vacation this fall. Complete hotel and dive packages start at $415 per person (dbl occ) for three nights with two days of diving on the world-famous walls, wrecks and reefs of Nassau, Bahamas.

Ready to book now? Call Toll Free 800-879-9832 (or 954-524-5755), email info@stuartcove.com, or visit their web site at <http://www.stuartcove.com>

###

Contact Information:

Stuart Cove's Dive Bahamas
Stuart Cove
954-524-5755
research@clinegroup.net
www.stuartcove.com
Scuba Diving in The Bahamas

Online Version of Press Release:

You can read the online version of this press release at: <http://www.pr.com/press-release/104968>

News Image:

