

Recover from Back-to-School Expenses

Austin, TX, September 15, 2008 --(PR.com)-- Now that kids are back in school, all the associated expenses can be tough on the family budget. Refinancing your auto loan and reducing your monthly car payment may offer some relief.

Companies such as RateGenius Loan Services specialize in automotive refinance, and offer great savings to your monthly budget. RateGenius customers, on average, save $60 off their existing car payment, and an average reduction of 3.8 percent from their previous auto loan interest rate. This type of savings begins to add up.

"By refinancing your car, you not only can add money back into your monthly budget by reducing your car payment, but you may also be able to skip a few payments to help with other expenses now," says Chris Brown, CEO of RateGenius. "As a parent myself, any type of savings helps out."

RateGenius makes the auto refinance process easy by offering an online application at www.rategenius.com. Customers may also apply over the phone toll free by calling (866) 728-3436. RateGenius matches each customer with a lender within the company's network that can best meet the customer's financial situation. RateGenius partners with national and federal savings banks, as well as credit unions, providing customers with one of the most financially stable and diverse lending networks in the industry.

RateGenius has funded over 46,500 loans since 1999, and is currently serving customers in 43 states.
