

New Enhanced Version for Luxury Hospitality Daily

New York, NY, September 24, 2008 --(PR.com)-- Luxury Hospitality Daily, the online daily on luxury hotels and gourmet restaurants, is launching an enhanced version of its website www.lhdaily.com, which will contain new columns and tools.

This website enables hoteliers to broadcast their press releases and best commercial offers and consult numerous useful links. Free on-demand interviews are also carried out by the editorial staff.

For Sylvie Leroy, the managing editor, "Luxury Hospitality Daily is intended above all to be a source of information and contacts in the sector of luxury hotels and gourmet restaurants. This new version is the successful outcome of several months of reflective analysis and studies which have been carried out in order to obtain a rich, complete and unifying website on the sector."

Recruitment is an essential column. Hoteliers can sign up in order to publish job and training offers in unlimited amounts and consult a database of more than 4000 CVs. Subscribers to this daily paper include some of the biggest names of the hotel industry: all seven Parisian palaces use its services in terms of recruitment.
