

Cellhut Presents Super Fall Savings

One of the internet's leading sellers of unlocked phones is having a Fall season sale.

New York, NY, September 24, 2008 --(PR.com)-- The leaves are beginning to acquire a golden pallor, typical for the cold weather, and Cellhut is welcoming this change with the annual Fall season sale. In celebration of the Fall season, Cellhut is preparing a new set of deals for everyone who visits the website. Always a company to offer its customers the very best prices on unlocked phones and accessories, these Fall deals are a special treat.

Cellhut has been selling unlocked cellphones and accessories since 1996. The e-commerce company is known for its dedication to the highest quality products and friendly customer service department. Cellhut only stocks the latest cell phone products to ensure that their customers are ahead of the technological curve.

Some of the great savings to be found in the Fall special include:

The Nokia E71 for $414.99. This QWERTY business phone is the ultimate productivity tool for people on the go. Using a combination of features and style to accomplish a sophisticated atmosphere, the Nokia E71 also boasts a MicroSD slot, 3.15 Megapixel Camera, and Dual-Band 3G connectivity. For the slim productivity-minded phone, the E71 is the perfect choice.

The Samsung E250 is available for $114.98 and is a great slider phone that packs in a surprising amount of technology in its small body. The buttons are perfectly spaced out on the front of the phone and EDGE connectivity gives it an advantage over other similarly-priced models with the ability to download multimedia. A VGA Camera that can take pictures at 640 x 480 resolution is a great way to solidify those classic moments.
