

SensiClear Acne Treatment Goes Into Secret Room Events' Celeb Gift Bags for 2008 MTV and Emmy Awards

SensiClear Acne Treatment Goes Behind the Scenes At 2008 Celebrity Events.

Menlo Park, CA, October 01, 2008 --(PR.com)-- In a repeat performance of their MTV Celebrity Gift Suite appearance, SensiClear Acne Treatment joined the Secret Room Events exclusive 2008 Emmy Awards Celebrity Gift Lounge, an invitation only two-day event September 18-19 in Los Angeles.

"We really liked the exclusivity of this event's focus and the atmosphere that we are presented in," said Charles Benard, Chief Marketing Officer for Mission Scientific. "It's great exposure to get your products directly into the hands of Hollywood celebrities. "This is the most advanced acne skincare treatment that can be purchased without a prescription and it is the only acne treatment system with the exclusive patented ingredient Retextra," said Benard.

The exclusive 2008 Emmy Awards Celebrity Gift Lounge hosted some of today's most unique, fashionable and luxurious companies. These included exotic resort vacations, fabulous products for the stars and even trendy products for their babies and pets. "Our goal is always to provide a totally over-the-top experience for the stars that are invited to our events and receive our gift bags," said Rita Branch, who along with Amy Boatwright owns Secret Room Events.

"I kept a box of SensiClear to try myself," said Boatwright. "My skin had a lot of breakouts since I was diagnosed with thyroid cancer four years ago. Since then my hormone imbalance has turned my beautiful skin into a complete mess. I have tried everything from Retin A, to doctors, to Proactive. Nothing worked because it over dried my skin. Since I've used SensiClear I have definitely noticed an improvement not only in breakouts but also in reduction of my red scars which really bothered me. And it didn't dry my skin out.

"I especially like the spot treatment that I keep in my purse all the time," Boatwright added. "Being in the entertainment business it is extremely frustrating to have to cover up my skin with tons of make-up to feel like I can go out in public. I started using only a tinted moisturizer a few days ago and was so overjoyed and felt normal, not like I was hiding my self behind a mask of makeup."
