

iUniverse Author, Professional Poker Player Featured in Oct. Podcast

Poker Phenom Brandon Adams Talks About Novel Based on Poker-Playing Experiences.

Bloomington, IN, October 01, 2008 --(PR.com)-- iUniverse, the leading book marketing, editorial services, and supported self-publishing company, is featuring professional poker player and author Brandon Adams in its monthly podcast.

Adams' novel Broke explores the dark side and dangers of poker through the eyes of three professional gamblers: Raf, Robert, and Matt. The trio navigates a high-stakes quest for legendary poker status, all the while dodging the addiction, mental anguish, and financial ruin that can result.

In addition to talking about Broke, Adams reveals his strategies for success at the poker table. A doctoral student, who teaches economics at Harvard, Adams burst onto the professional poker scene by making the final table at the 2005 Tournament of Champions.
