

Cross Dressing 101. Suddenly Fem Offers Cool Clothes for Beginner CDs.

CrossDresser.com, the Cross Dressing Superstore, offers the beginning crossdresser an enormous variety of lingerie, outerwear, evening wear, and accessories.

Philadelphia, PA, April 02, 2009 --(PR.com)-- Most crossdressers begin dressing in the closet. And quite often, that closet doesn't belong to them. It belongs to their mother or their sister or their wife. But at a certain point, most dressers tire of squeezing into awkward-looking garments that don't fit or don't fit their desired style.

That's when the beginning crossdresser turns to Suddenly Fem (www.crossdresser.com). CrossDresser.com, the Cross Dressing Superstore, offers the beginning crossdresser an enormous variety of panties, bras, hosiery, shoes, outerwear, evening wear, and accessories. And best of all, most Crossdresser.com fashions were designed and produced using male bodies as guides.

“Most cross dressers go through an awkward stage as they seek to find their own style and comfort zone,” says Willow Obst of Suddenly Fem. “But well-made, intelligently-designed garments can help the beginner dresser progress more quickly.”

In addition, Suddenly Fem offers a shopping experience that the beginner crossdresser will really appreciate. First of all, the future cd, tv, tranny, or drag queen can shop in the privacy of their own home. Secondly, Suddenly Fem offers a huge variety of clothing and feminine accessories, so it really is an easy one-stop shop. Suddenly Fem offers such staples as corsets, mini skirts, mini dresses, bras, panties, hosiery, and lingerie, as well as necessary items such as wigs, gaffs, and silicone breast forms.

One staple that no crossdresser should be without (but that many overlook) is the sexy but functional catsuit. The cat suit is the perfect foundation for a variety of outfits, including costumes. But, for the beginner CD who may not yet be comfortable with shaving her body, the catsuit also covers body hair quite nicely. Suddenly Fem's new sleek and ultra sexy catsuit (by popular customer request) is made of extra soft, stretch poly lycra, and it's specially designed to fit a man's body. It's a look that's bound to please trannies, admirers, and fashion conscious transgendered women.

Cassandra Fever, a Suddenly Fem model and internationally known female impersonator called the black catsuit her favorite Suddenly Fem outfit. “It compliments my personal style, it fits well, and it's a very versatile piece,” said Cassandra. “You can accessorize it with various corsets or other things, which I like to do.”

Of course, as the premier line of crossdresser clothing and accessories made to fit men, Suddenly Fem also offers clothing that appeals to the sophisticated tastes of more experienced crossdressers, transvestites, drag queens, and transsexuals. The online superstore offers everything from lingerie to formal wear; eveningwear and party dresses to casual wear and club wear; plus mini skirts, mini dresses, micro minis, shoes, boots, hosiery, jewelry, accessories, and make-up.
