

Anna Pereira, Founder of Super Sexy Clothing, is an Artist, not a Fashion Designer ... Applying Her Fashion Art to Clothing Rather than Canvas

Anna Pereira, of Super Sexy Clothing (www.SuperSexyClothing.com), wants people to know that she is an artist who applies her painted artwork to clothing rather than canvas.

Union, NJ, June 03, 2005 --(PR.com)-- Anna Pereira, owner of Super Sexy Clothing (www.supersexyclothing.com), has been painting and drawing since her early childhood and had won awards for her artwork in her youth. With her impeccable skills in airbrush and free hand painting and her amazing ability to transform a basic shirt into a jeweled corset, Anna is creating her artwork for clothing rather than canvas. Why? “My work makes me happy and I enjoy looking at it. When you wear your art, you can admire it every time it's worn and make a fashion statement,” states Pereira.

Anna is not a Fashion Designer in the traditional sense. She is a skilled artist and painter who is choosing to display her work on various styles of t-shirts and tank tops, with the goal of allowing women to feel confident, expressive and yes, Super Sexy!

Anna creates unique custom made shirts per each customer's individual request, ensuring that each piece of wearable artwork is that customer's one of a kind piece. Nobody else can go and buy it off the rack.

“I don't work with seasons,” states Pereira. “Any design can be made at any time on a Tank Top, T-shirt or long sleeve T-shirt. It's about the artwork, not the season.”

The purpose behind Super Sexy Couture Custom Shirts is to allow each customer to express themselves individually through either phrasing or abstract painted art. Some Super Sexy Shirts bear the “Super Sexy” Brand Name, such as “Spirituality is Super Sexy” or “My Boyfriend is Super Sexy”. According to Anna, “Anything positive can be Super Sexy.” Custom airbrush stencils are created by Anna, which aid in the composition of her airbrushed text designs and then jeweled with genuine Swarovski Crystals.

Other shirts are hand painted and made to order, with splashes of vibrant paint colors swirled into unique designs and patterns, and crystallized for a truly glamorous affect. Some shirts are even corseted with ribbon for extra oomph.

All Swarovski Crystals are hand applied and all shirts are quality tested before being distributed. Hearts, stars, lines, brush strokes... just about any pattern you can think of is available for the asking. Feminine florals to funky retro urban designs, it's all Super Sexy.
