

Massive Explosion at the LISTnet Incubator

Prime Visibility, a Search Engine Marketing and Website Optimization firm located in LISTnet's Incubator at Briarcliffe College, has exploded in the past three months by hiring an additional 25 employees and doubling the amount of its office space. The company also added more than twenty-four new clients last quarter and its revenues are up 70% from last year.

Long Island, NY, August 21, 2006 --(PR.com)-- Prime Visibility, a Search Engine Marketing and Website Optimization firm located in LISTnet's Incubator at Briarcliffe College, has exploded in the past three months by hiring an additional 25 employees and doubling the amount of its office space. The company also added more than twenty-four new clients last quarter and its revenues are up 70% from last year.

"The past six months have been extraordinary!" reports Andrew S. Hazen, the company's Founder & CEO. "I attribute our rapid expansion to an increasing awareness of the benefits of employing Search Engine Marketing Solutions in the business sector for companies of every type and size. Our expertise and proven track record have endowed us with an excellent reputation among our peers and more importantly - with our clients. Prime Visibility is never content to rest on our laurels. As we enjoy this period of growth and expansion, we look forward for this trend to continue. Our professional achievements benefit our clients as much ourselves, allowing us all to attain greatness."

Founded in 1999, Prime Visibility has been recognized by BtoB Magazine as one of the Top 20 Search Engine Marketing firms in the country for the past five years. In addition, the company has been featured as Search Engine Marketing experts on A&E Biography Channel - see <http://www.PrimeVisibility.com/ae.html>

The LISTnet Incubator at Briarcliffe College has been developed to provide space for companies in various high technology fields to operate and to develop their businesses in a location where such companies can benefit from the opportunities that may be derived from working in proximity with each other.
