

Chrysalis Shelter, Arizona's Safe Haven for Women, Embraces NuU Medspa Donation

Phoenix, AZ, June 24, 2009 --(PR.com)-- NuU Medspa donates beauty products and more to enhance women's self-esteem and self-worth at Chrysalis Shelter for Victims of Domestic Violence in Scottsdale, AZ. NuU Medspa is in the business of beautifying people from the inside out.

Chrysalis is a long-running safe haven for women and children of domestic abuse. Chrysalis began with a woman opening her home to less fortunate women and children twenty years ago and now has transformed thousands of lives through outreach programs, education and out-patient counseling. NuU applauds Chrysalis's amazing feats and is touched by the dedication and love of the staff.

Through beauty treatments and wellness programs, NuU Medspa strives for similar goals to Chrysalis; creating self-worth and pride in a woman's life. Exfoliation treatments, anti-aging remedies, personalized weight management and naturopathic solutions are just a few treatments that NuU Medspa offers to get clients on the right track to improving their quality of life.

There are several ways to leave your mark and donate your time or specialty to less fortunate women and children. For more information on how you can be a strong link in the chain of fulfillment, contact Chrysalis Shelter online at www.noabuse.org.

NuU Medspa is inspired by Chrysalis Shelter for Victims of Domestic Abuse, Inc. and their mission that has enriched women and children's lives.
