

Bio-Clean International Inc. Affiliate Receives Major New Order for Weapons Cleaning Machine and Fluids

Huntington Beach, CA, July 29, 2009 --(PR.com)-- Bio-Clean International, Inc. (BCLE.PK) announced today that an affiliate of the company has received a major order for its U.S. military weapons cleaning systems and fluids. The order was received from a NYSE Fortune 500 military contractor and the order is destined for U.S. military operations overseas. Revenue from this new order alone exceeds $100,000 for the month of July, 2009.

Jim Shipley, CEO of Bio-Clean, stated, “Our investment in companies that are majority owned and operated by Service-Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Businesses (SDVOB) continues to pay off. We expect 2009 revenues to continue growing as a result of teaming agreements with our SDVOB companies and other Fortune 500 companies and federal contractors serving the needs of the Department of Defense, the federal government, and the private sector.”

About Bio-Clean International, Inc.

Bio-Clean International, Inc. provides exclusive, patented, non-toxic fluids for U.S. military weapons and equipment cleaning. We also provide unique solutions for environmentally safe remediation of other projects requiring complete compliance with environmental regulations throughout the U.S.A.

Our majority-owned subsidiary, American Bio-Tech Cleaning, Inc. (ABT), designs and manufactures customized parts and weapons washing/cleaning systems that are eco-friendly, using a water-based cleaning fluid integrated with a self-contained bio-remediation process. We also own a minority interest in American Bio-Clean Corporation (ABC) (www.americanbioclean.com), which markets and distributes our cleaning fluids and parts/weapons cleaning machines. ABC is a Service-Disabled Veteran-Owned Business (SDVOB) that is certified and meets the Federal-mandated 3% minority spending requirements. Similar mandated spending requirements adopted by most states vary from 3% to 20%. Additionally, many private sector companies have targeted goals for suppliers.

We also maintain a minority interest in Veterans Training Corporation, (VTC) (www.veteranstrainingcorp.com), which is also a SDVOB business based in Southern California and provides a wide range of training programs for a variety of clients including the U.S. Department of Defense. In addition, VTC provides training programs for the private sector such as its OSHA safety-training programs for the construction industry.
