

iFurn Stores Named One of the Top 20 Online-Only Furniture Retailers

iFurn Stores listed as one of the top online-only home furnishings retailers in Furniture/Today's exclusive report.

Wichita, KS, August 13, 2009 --(PR.com)-- iFurn Stores is pleased to announce its inclusion on Furniture/Today's list of the top 20 online-only home furnishings retailers. Furniture/Today is a weekly print and online publication for the furniture industry, and has been providing authoritative, in-depth coverage for over 30 years. This exclusive report lists 20 of the strongest players in the online home furnishings market, and does not include furniture retailers who have both a brick-and-mortar and online presence such as Target, Wal-Mart and JC Penney. Furniture/Today compiled their report by surveying online furniture stores, speaking with industry insiders and researching newspaper archives.

iFurn Stores, founded in 1998, began as a single computer furniture sales site and has quickly grown into a multi-million dollar leader in online furniture sales. In addition to its flagship storefront, iFurn.com, iFurn Stores currently has over 25 specialty storefronts including KidFurn.com, Diningroom-Furniture-Superstore.com and Office-Furniture-Superstore.com. The company credits its success to its commitment to superior customer service, extensive product line and competitive price points.
