

Pirates Invade the West End

Party Like a Pirate: Island Party in the West End, Saturday, September 19, 2009 (National Talk Like a Pirate Day) 11:00 a.m. - 11:00 p.m.

Dallas, TX, September 08, 2009 --(PR.com)-- Ahoy Matey! Dallas' West End is partying Pirate Style on National Talk Like a Pirate Day, September 19, 2009. Party Like a Pirate: Island Party in the West End is a Free block party featuring pirate costumed actors performing impromptu skits and sword fights on the streets of West End, island and beach music, artists and great food. Everyone is invited to dress like a pirate and be a part of the show.

West End's Market Street (Elm Street to Munger Street) is the site for the West End Association's 1st Annual Party Like a Pirate: Island Party in the West End, Saturday, September 19, 2009 from 11:00 a.m. - 11:00 p.m. Swashbucklers and wenches, palm trees and sand, strolling pirate fiddlers and impromptu sword fights (Argh!), you can even have your special someone locked in stocks & shackles for charity, at the Party Like a Pirate: Island Party in the West End.

Steel drums and beach music are the sounds of the day. Local steel drum band, "Island Boogie Band" (www.myspace.com/islandboogie) headlines the Pirates Cove Stage located at Market Street and Corbin Avenue, along with Zionaura (<http://www.myspace.com/zionaura>) and other local bands and street entertainers. The official entertainment schedule is posted on www.dallaswestend.org.

The family fun area will feature inflatable islands, slides, pirate boat bounce houses, games, balloon artists, face painters and pirate puppeteers.

Party Like a Pirate: Island Party in the West End guests are invited to dress like a pirate and be part of the show. Costume Contest will crown the West End's first Pirate King and Wench Queen. Take that costume out of the trunk, put on an eye patch and brush up on your, "Aye Aye Captain's" and "Argh!'s." Not only come to the party, be part of the party.

About The West End

The West End has once again become the entertainment destination of choice for locals and tourists alike. This resurgence into the Dallas spotlight is due to our award winning restaurants, specialty retail shops, increasing nightlife and out-of-doors festivals, attractions such as the Dallas World Aquarium, Sixth Floor Museum, Dallas Holocaust Museum, Dallas Segway Tours and our historic carriage rides. The restaurants and attractions of the West End offer entertainment alternatives to a broad range of appetites, interests and budgets. For more information, please visit www.dallaswestend.org.

###

Contact Information:

West End Association
Michelle Chennault
817-715-4787

Contact via Email

www.dallaswestend.org
Bob Allen
469-964-6983

Online Version of Press Release:

You can read the online version of this press release at: <http://www.pr.com/press-release/177208>

News Image:

