

Press Conference Announces New Spanish & German Immersion Programs at the International School of Arizona

Scottsdale, AZ, September 27, 2006 --(PR.com)-- The International School of Arizona will host a Press Conference with the Mexican Consulate General and German Honorary Consul on Thursday September 28 at 11:00AM.

Information about ISA's unique and expanding international program offerings will be presented with details of interest to many in the Valley with concern for education, foreign languages and international presence, specifically including corporations with international employees.

As part of this event the school invites local organizations to become involved with the school to strengthen and enrich the international and diverse cultural offerings this expanding school provides.

This event will be held on the school campus located at 1401 N. 75th Street in Scottsdale (one block South of McDowell RD just West of Miller Road, on the corner of 75th Street & Culver Rd.)

About the School:

The International School of Arizona, founded in 1997, is a non-profit, private school emphasizing second language acquisition and bicultural learning through French, German and Spanish immersion. ISA was founded in a spirit of bringing a different cultural awareness to children of ethnically and socially diverse backgrounds. It is ISA's mission to provide its students with the fundamental tools of learning while giving them the opportunity to discover a new language and a new culture. The school offers a total immersion (pre-preschool and elementary) program which follows European Educational Systems and Arizona State standards.

###

Contact Information:

International School of Arizona

Michelle Borie

480-874-2326

information@isaz.org

www.isaz.org

Online Version of Press Release:

You can read the online version of this press release at: <http://www.pr.com/press-release/18771>

News Image:

