

Gossimer Announced a Transfer-in Domain Promotion to Allow Customers to Consolidate Their Domains Into One Account

Save money on domain name transfer to Gossimer. Gossimer is currently running an attractive promotion on domain transfer-in that will save a lot of money for the domain portfolio builder. You can transfer as many domains as you wish under this promotion.

Melbourne, FL, November 07, 2009 --(PR.com)-- Gossimer, the domain name registration, website hosting and services company, has announced a transfer-in promotion allowing customers to consolidate all of their domain names into one account. From the second day of November '09, Gossimer started offering customers a promotional price on domain names being transferred to Gossimer at a heavy discount, their transfer-in pricing of .COM, .ORG, .NET, .BIZ, .INFO, and .NAME TLDs (Top Level Domains) has been reduced to $7.50 for the entire month of November.

They have stated that the promotional pricing will not be available for renewals and new registrations. The name servers will not be altered anytime during the transfer because of which there will be no downtime in the process. All transfers according to their promotion will be risk-free, and seamless. Till November 30, 2009, customers can transfer as many domains to Gossimer as they want, and the more domains they transfer the more they will save.

“We have devised a system that allows seamless transfer of domains. Till date we have not heard of any downtime during the transfer from any of our customers,” said Marvin Dreyer, CEO of Gossimer. He went on to add, “If the domain transfer fails, somehow, then the amount paid for the transfer will instantaneously be credited back to the buyer's account. No questions asked.”

Gossimer also offers one year free extension with all the domains transferred to it. It also gives free DNS service, domain forwarding, main forwarding, privacy protection, and domain theft protection etc., for free with every domain name bought from or transferred to Gossimer.

Recently, Gossimer has shifted its base to Melbourne, Florida from New Jersey, and ever since the company has delighted its customers by offering cool domain promotions. Last month, Gossimer offered cheap .com off-the-shelf domain names. And as soon as that promotion ended, the company came up with this attractive promotion for their customers and domain portfolio builders.

Currently, Gossimer is also running domain name promotions on country-specific top level domains (CTDL) like .IN, .EU, .CO.IN, NET.IN, ORG.IN, GEN.IN, FIRM.IN, IND.IN , etc.
