

Casual Bridal Couture is Becoming the Hottest Trend with Super Sexy Custom Embellished Bridal Corsets

Super Sexy LLC makes White Bridal Corsets with Swarovski crystal embellishments, great for outdoor and destination weddings!

Union, NJ, July 26, 2005 --(PR.com)-- With beach weddings, picnic weddings and the ever popular destination wedding becoming a matrimonial trend, brides are adjusting their wedding ensembles accordingly. The muss and fuss of the traditional church wedding has notoriously created many a stressed out bride. It is no surprise that many soon to be "Mrs." are feeling a bit rebellious and yearning for something more casual.

Think summer dresses, flip flops, bare feet, bathing suits and wild flowers picked straight from the garden. Sounds good to us!!! Super Sexy Clothing Designer, Anna Pereira, insists that keeping it casual can be just as elegant and glamorous as any formal bridal gown. Known for her hand set ribbon corsets and individually hand applied Swarovski crystal embellished shirts, Anna has created a breathtakingly gorgeous white corseted and crystallized top for the blushing bride who prefers a more casual incarnation of couture glamour, on her wedding day.

Similar styles can be custom made for bridesmaids, in the pastel color of choice. Your bridal party will be thrilled that they can actually wear their bridesmaid's corsets again and again! ALL Super Sexy tops are machine washable and last a long time.

Product Description: Airbrushed faux lace in metallic silver on a white boy beater tank top. Other Options Include: metallic pearl white, metallic gold, and metallic pearl off white.
