

Diane White Cre8tive Luxury - Full Service Party Planning & Event Design, Dallas, Texas

Diane White... A woman with impeccable taste and ardent eye for the minutest details, just ask fitness guru Donna Richardson-Joyner to Dallas Socialite Natalie McGuire, producing weddings and events for celebrity and high profile clients has become second natured and a full time business for Diane.

Dallas, TX, December 04, 2006 --(PR.com)-- Diane White, creator of lavish weddings, extravagant events and Sensational Sweet Soirees. Producing events for sports and entertainment luminaries and their children have become more than a favorite past time, but a full time business. After giving out valuable information for many years on planning ideas, design schemes and vendor information, Diane realized, if she continued giving out valuable information and trade secrets, she may as well wear a fashionable tee that reads "Out Of Business." Giving out too much information has been her downfall over the years. Creating has always been her passion, and she now realizes this is her purpose. She doesn't just plan, she orchestrates, and it shows in every detail. When Diane gets in her "ZONE" she combines quality, style, cre8tivity, passion and most important purpose.

Diane White Cre8tive Luxury clientele includes: sports, entertainment luminaries and socialites, as well as top corporations: Mike & Natalie McGuire, Emmitt & Pat Smith, Raghil & Melanie Ismail, Juan & Jeane Howard, Omar & Shelia Stoutmire, Mr. & Mrs. Tom Joyner, Doug & Wendy Banks, Bishop & Mrs. TD Jakes and Dieon & Pilar Sanders. Corporations such as Dallas Ft. Worth International Airport, FOX Family Home Entertainment, Trans America INC, and Foxy Huntress Apparel have also turned to Diane to produce their fabulous fetes. Diane's events and creative ideas have been featured in top publications; InStyle Weddings, Brides, Ebony, Jet and Essence magazines as well as media coverage; Dallas Morning News, Entertainment Tonight and Good Morning Texas.

When you are looking for more than an event or wedding producer, let Diane White plan and brand your next event. "It's obvious Diane White loves what she does!"
