

Outside the Lines, Inc. Announces the Release of the 2006 Wine & Hospitality Industry Wage and Benefits Survey Reports

Sonoma, CA, January 03, 2007 --(PR.com)-- Outside the Lines, Inc. (OTL), the Sonoma, CA based Wine & Hospitality Industry consulting firm, has released the reports for their Annual Wine, Full-Service Restaurant and Hotel/Lodging Industry Wage and Benefits Surveys. Each of these comprehensive surveys are targeted specifically to each individual industry and cover entry level through senior management positions for companies throughout the United States. The surveys were open for participation to qualifying companies from September 1 through December 31, 2006.

In the third year of producing these surveys, the participation this year has exceeded OTL's expectations. "We're thrilled with the dramatic increase in participation in these surveys. They have quickly become the standard the industry looks to for wage and benefit information," says Margie Tosch, managing director of Outside the Lines, Inc. OTL has established itself as the leader in providing human resources, training and recruiting information and statistics to the wine and hospitality industries. The full report for each industry is available for purchase through Outside the Lines, Inc.
