

Nail Gun Depot Announces Its 2007 New Product Categories

Nail Gun Depot is pleased to announce a variety of new product additions for 2007. They strive to save time and money for both contractors and do-it-yourselfers.

Cincinnati, OH, January 14, 2007 --(PR.com)-- Nail Gun Depot, www.nailgundepot.com, is off to strong start for 2007. They continue to offer great pricing and a broad product selection of tools and fasteners. Senco, Paslode, Hitachi, Duo-Fast, and Porta-Nails are just a few top manufacturers that they handle. Their product line includes tools for flooring, upholstery, finish and trim, packaging, pallet and crating, siding, fencing, decking, roofing, and much more. Whether you are just looking for product information or to purchase, Nail Gun Depot can accommodate your needs.

To kick off the 2007 Nail Gun Depot is pleased to announce the addition of several new product categories. They are now a full line retailer for Hitachi Power Tools. This enables them to expand their product line to offer saws, rotary hammers, drills, and many other exciting items. Also for 2007, a wide array of construction accessories from safety glasses to fall protection will be available. They look forward to another year and wish everyone a great new year!
