

Amber Alert Issued for Pittsburgh Toddler (Ayinde Bradford - 4)

Springfield, IL, February 08, 2007 --(PR.com)-- The Pennsylvania State Police has issued an Amber Child Abduction Alert for the Pittsburgh Police Department, Allegheny County. The Pittsburgh Police are searching for Ayinde Bradford. The child was forcibly taken 9:46 a.m. this morning from the Children's Museum.

Kunta Bradford fled the scene, heading south with the child, in the passenger seat of a dark colored 4 door sedan, partial PA registration of DN096, operated by an unidentified black female driver. The suspect may also be in possession of a dark green 1997 Toyota Camry, PA registration GMR7704.

Please visit <http://www.projectsafekids.org> for more details.

###

Contact Information:

Project Safekids

Scott Woods

217-391-4742

Contact via Email

<http://www.projectsafekids.org>

Online Version of Press Release:

You can read the online version of this press release at: <http://www.pr.com/press-release/29459>

News Image:

