

PR.com Wins “Outstanding Achievement in Website Development” Award from the Web Marketing Association for Its Remarkable Website

This award serves as a wonderful affirmation of the outstanding and unique value of PR.com. The result of brilliant work that went into its development, PR.com is unique in that it is a one stop shop business marketplace making the search for, or promotion of anything important to business, a simple and quick process.

New York, NY, September 14, 2005 --(PR.com)-- PR.com today received the 2005 “Outstanding Achievement in Website Development” Award from the Web Marketing Association's annual award show, the “Web Awards.” This international award recognizes PR.com (www.PR.com) as one of the most effective websites on the Internet today.

PR.com was one of 2,100 website entries overall from 33 countries, which were evaluated on design, innovation, content, interactivity, navigation, ease of use and use of technology. The judges included nationally recognized members of the media, advertising executives, website designers, corporate marketing executives, content providers and webmasters. Now in its 9th year, the WebAwards is one of the leading annual awards events where websites are recognized, competing head-to-head with other sites within their industry and against an overall standard of excellence.

"This award recognizes PR.com's use of cutting-edge technology to create an industry-leading website that provides an environment in which companies can promote literally everything about their businesses," states Jason Manheim, President of PR.com. "It is yet another indicator that we are successfully delivering on our mission for PR.com to enable businesses to generate quality leads as well as great exposure for their products, services and other business information."

The PR.com website has been designed with the purpose of making it extremely easy for people to search for any type of business, product, service, job, press release, article and other business information. Further, it has been developed in such a way to make it just as easy for companies to promote such information and therefore attract great exposure and leads to their business. As a result, PR.com is unique in that it is a one stop shop business marketplace making the search for, or promotion of anything important to business, a simple and quick process.
