

West Meets East - A Friendship Created, a Jewelry Line Born: A.D. Jewels

A marriage between West and East gives birth to an exclusively designed line of handmade sterling gemstone jewelry. The Spring 2007 A.D. Line just introduced.

Hiram, OH, February 23, 2007 --(PR.com)-- Years of dreaming, researching, planning and praying have resulted in a line of exclusively designed handmade sterling silver gemstone jewelry: A.D. Jewels.

"I am excited this press release comes just in time to introduce my Spring 2007 A.D. Line!" states owner/designer, Angela Daczko.

A.D. Jewels launched www.adjewels.net in 2006, and continues to lure an ever increasing amount of chic shoppers and boutiques seeking extraordinary sterling gemstone jewelry. While browsing the site and viewing the new Spring line, there are ample testimonials available of A.D. Jewels, such as the following quote from a former Cartier jeweler:

"Having been a jeweler at Cartier a number of years ago, I can recognize fine design. These crosses are reminiscent of Byzantine jewel encrusted reliquaries and books. They are very special indeed and will make an impression on any neck and go perfectly with the current styles of velvets and long skirts! I just love the ones I have purchased." - Monika Winterle Chapman

The exclusive line of highly distinguished necklaces, bracelets, earrings and rings is designed by U.S. designer, Angela Daczko and handmade in India by a wonderful group of very talented artisans. A.D. Jewels also offers a selection of gemstone beaded jewelry that is handmade by Angela herself as she shops for AAA quality gemstone beads from around the world.

A.D. Jewels sells wholesale and retail and has made great strides since its conception in the fall of 2005. "Baby steps" Angela says with a big smile on her face "I would be very happy to put my boys through college with these jewels."

Angela is quoted as stating that she is "passionately involved in all her relationships affecting this business" and "It is a labor of love and friendship, from beginning to end."
