

topseos.com Announces Free Subscriptions to “Visibility” Magazine

Plymouth, IN, March 22, 2007 --(PR.com)-- “For now, the primary objective is to reach out to as many people as we can with the magazine. That is why we are starting out with free subscriptions for a fixed period of time.”

Bill Peden said this, explaining the announcement from topseos.com of having free subscriptions to their magazine “Visibility”. The subscriptions will be made free till March, 2008.

“Sure we are already considered reliable, and there are more than enough people willing to subscribe for a cost, but you have to remember there are smaller players in the market. We want to first give them a feel of what “Visibility” is going to be all about. 'Let keen readers become regular subscribers' that is the approach we are taking right now,” Bill Peden added.

“Visibility” is a first-of-its-kind magazine as it sees the entry of an established digital presence with the traditional print media. The magazine will feature interviews with CEOs, opinions, reviews of new products, information about emerging tools, methodologies and much more.
