

Dawna Lee Heising, Ms. US World 2007, Joins "Eye on Entertainment"

Ken Huthmaker is Producer and Director of Cable Television Show

Orange County, CA, April 14, 2007 --(PR.com)-- Dawna Lee Heising, Ms. US World 2007, has joined the cable television program "Eye on Entertainment", which is produced and directed by Ken Huthmaker. The cable television show is shown on Channel 22 through Time Warner Cable. "Eye on Entertainment" is based in Hollywood and covers a wide variety of events, award shows, grand openings and other newsworthy happenings. Dawna will serve as a hostess for the show and interact with guests, including celebrity interviews on the red carpet.

Having been in the entertainment business and around Hollywood for over 40 years, Ken Huthmaker has been fortunate to meet and photograph many exciting and memorable people. He has photographed John F. Kennedy, Buzz Aldrin, Neil Armstrong, Eleanor Roosevelt, Muhammad Ali, Arnold Schwarzenegger, Debbie Reynolds and many others. He is an accomplished photographer and videographer and started the cable television show "Eye on Entertainment" in 2000. Ken works for the City of Gardena and has worked as a staff writer for Palos Verdes Estates' Peninsula News. He is also a Fellow of the Ambassadorial Society of America.

Ms. US World 2007, Dawna Lee Heising, from California, is a Marketing and Public Relations professional for SYSPRO USA, a leading enterprise business software company. She has a B.S. in Business Management and MBA from Pepperdine University and a Ph.D. in Business Management from Pacific Western University. She is listed in "Who's Who in Technology," belongs to the Screen Actor's Guild, has acted in film, TV and theatre productions and has worked as a professional model. Dawna is a long-time volunteer for the American Heart Association and the American Stroke Association. She is on the Planning Committees for the 2007 Orange County Heart Gala and Heart Walk, which raises funds for the AHA. She is also a volunteer for the Newport Beach Film Festival.

Dawna is currently taking production and camera operation classes through Time Warner Cable and is planning to launch a cable business show with Stan Goodrich in the near future.

As Ms. US World 2007, Dawna is a spokesperson for the Ambassadorial Society of America. The founder and owner of The Ambassadorial Society of America, LLC, is Venus Day, a graduate of the University of Notre in Computer Science and Economics. Anastasia Anderson is Ms. World 2007 and Anastasia and Dawna are both charged with promoting the goals of the Ambassadorial Society of America and its call for ongoing humanitarian service in all communities around the world.

For more information about the Ambassadorial Society of America, go to: www.universeambassador.org and <http://www.msworld.us/Dawna.html>

###

Contact Information:

Ambassadorial Society of America

Venus Day

714-390-7122

ambassadorialsociety@universeambassador.org

www.msworld.us/Dawna.html

Venus Day is the Founder and can be reached at: 386-290-6472

Online Version of Press Release:

You can read the online version of this press release at: <http://www.pr.com/press-release/35836>

News Image:

