

‘I’ll Take That Job - That Johnny Paycheck Shoved’

Brenda Brown Entertainment/Pure Heart Records proudly present Country Music newcomer Clay Dustin with the release of his lead single "I'll Take That Job-That Johnny Paycheck Shoved" off his sophomore project.

Las Vegas, NV, October 27, 2011 --(PR.com)-- At a time when an unhealthy number of Americans are feeling the pain of a woeful economy many look to find a singular voice to communicate their emotions and feelings; enter Clay Dustin, with his fun-loving, tongue-in-cheek single “I’ll Take That Job (That Johnny Paycheck Shoved)”. The song, inspired by what has transpired domestically and internationally, moved Dustin to act in his own way. “When I first heard 'I'll Take That Job (That Johnny Paycheck Shoved)' I knew I had to record it,” said Dustin. “In these times that we are in, I wanted to let all the people that listen to Country radio know that they are not alone.”

While the song pokes fun at the old Johnny Paycheck classic “Take This Job and Shove It,” the underlying theme of the song rings very true for many of us today. Country radio listeners can take heart that they are not alone in their struggles in today's world. As Clay states to all his fans, “This song's for you!”

About Clay Dustin:

Clay Dustin is a modern day cowboy delivering an old soulful country sound with his own personal touch. Mixing his El Paso, Texas roots of rodeos, cowboys and strong family values with his love for music from artists such as Johnny Cash, George Strait, Alan Jackson and Merle Haggard, Clay has creatively fused his style of living with his style of performing. Clay Dustin presents his brand of country music with words of family, love, God, humor and loss, voiced from a man that is still well connected to his roots and beliefs. Clay Dustin: Down to earth country music from a tried & true cowboy. Find out more about Clay at www.claydustin.com and you can purchase the physical CD there.
