

Mike Habib, EA Introduces Tax Planning & Tax Coaching Service

2011 year-end tax planning strategies for individual and business taxpayers.

Whittier, CA, November 04, 2011 --(PR.com)-- Mike Habib, EA is pleased to announce he has added tax planning and tax coaching to his firm's services. The new service gives individual and business taxpayers a plain-English plan for beating the IRS - legally by taking advantage to every tax break they deserve.

"Other traditional tax planning firms' crunches numbers to illustrate 'what-if' scenarios based on future assumptions," said Mr. Habib. It gives clients dry numbers, in more detail than they need or want. But clients don't want numbers. Clients want savings.

"Our tax planning and coaching service quizzes clients on their families and homes, jobs, businesses, and investments, then recommends specific strategies and concepts for saving tax," Mr. Habib continued. "We package those recommendations in plain English, to deliver the savings they really want."

"Proactive tax planning is the key to keeping more of what you make," Mr. Habib added, proactive tax planning means scouring your income and expenses for every available deduction, credit, loophole, and opportunity and without aggressive strategies, gray areas or red flags.

Taxpayers need proactive tax planning help more than ever before, Mike Habib, EA identify and explore opportunities with you to cut your tax bill. Innovative analysis, combined with years of tax experience, gives you the proactive advice you need with the reliable service you trust.

Fees start at $800.00 tax-deductible dollars. Tax planning and tax coaching includes a personalized written report and ongoing maintenance for changing tax laws.
