

Sutliff & Stout, PLLC Expands to Austin, Texas with New Law Offices

Houston-based personal injury and accident law firm Sutliff & Stout, PLLC has announced their recent expansion to new offices in Austin, Texas to better serve their Austin-area and Central Texas clients.

Austin, TX, November 30, 2011 --(PR.com)-- Personal injury and accident lawyers Sutliff & Stout, PLLC recently opened an office in Austin, Texas. The firm's Austin office is located at 106 E. Sixth Street, Suite 900, Austin, Texas 78701.

The new Austin office location was opened primarily due to the growing demand for the firm to be closer to its individual and corporate clients in Austin and the Central Texas area. “We were able to represent all of our clients in the Austin area with just a Houston office,” says Graham E. Sutliff, “but opening an Austin office will make it much easier for our Austin area clients to meet with us in person whenever they want.” The new Austin location of Sutliff & Stout, PLLC is the second office for the firm, which was previously located only in Houston, Texas.

About Sutliff & Stout, PLLC

Sutliff & Stout, PLLC is a civil litigation and personal injury law firm that focuses on personal injury and commercial litigation. The attorneys at Sutliff & Stout, PLLC have worked for some of the largest, most respected litigation firms in the country. This allows Sutliff & Stout, PLLC to offer the experience and expertise you would expect from a large firm, combined with the level of service and personal attention inherent in a smaller firm.

###

Contact Information:

TastyPlacement

Michael David

512-535-2492

Contact via Email

www.TastyPlacement.com/

Online Version of Press Release:

You can read the online version of this press release at: <http://www.pr.com/press-release/373122>