

towSearch.com Expands Capabilities for Those Needing Towing and Road Service

Keller, TX, May 23, 2007 --(PR.com)-- towPartners today announced that its towing and road service provider locator tool, towSearch, has been enhanced to include more detailed information on the over 5,000 companies in it's Gold Level network. From wrecker companies to full scale towing and recovery operations with diverse capabilities, the towSearch tool is currently averaging over 2,000 searches per month by those members of the public needing to find automotive service providers. The towSearch directory of companies is a free tool searchable by fleet managers, the general public, automotive repair facilities and anyone needing road services.

towSearch now includes search capability for the following services:

- Light Duty Towing
- Medium Duty Towing
- Heavy-Duty Towing
- Motorcycle Towing
- Emergency Road Service
- Battery Boost / Jump Start
- Tire Change
- Fuel and Gas Delivery
- Body Shops
- Repair Shops
- Incident Management
- Auto Transport
- Motor Home Towing

More information is being added to this tool daily and more detailed information about service providers as well as a full mobile version is expected in the coming weeks.

“We continue to work hard to deliver quality solutions to the motoring public along with the any efforts on behalf of our members,” stated Jeffrey Godwin, Vice President of towPartners. “The towSearch tool offers the public a great resource to use in selecting a service provider. As member companies update their service profiles, the data becomes stronger and the tool more valuable to the users. We are proud to provide this free service to the public as well as to our members as we work 'for the industry.’” towSearch is a free tool from towPartners. From vehicle towing to roadside service, www.towsearch.com can help you search for the best providers anywhere in the United States. Please let them know about your experiences with their site at towSearch@towpartners.com.
