

Sally Bucciero Mortgage Group, LLC Officially Opens Its Doors

Sally Bucciero Mortgage Group, LLC, a full-service mortgage firm, announced today that it officially opened its doors for business in the Great Smoky Mountains, one of Tennessee's fastest-growing markets. Understanding the vital role purchasing a home plays in one's life, the group is committed to ensuring each client is provided with an array of loan options tailored to the individual's needs.

Sevierville, TN, May 24, 2007 --(PR.com)-- Through the use of a proprietary 75-step system, Sally Bucciero Mortgage Group, LLC works with lenders nationwide to identify the best home lending options available. However, the company goes one step further once a loan closes, by consistently tracking market trends and communicating with clients regarding additional money-saving opportunities.

“Our work begins when your loan closes. By keeping my finger on the pulse of the financial markets and identifying the ideal time to lock-in interest rates or refinance, Sally Bucciero Mortgage Group, LLC is able to save our clients valuable time and money,” said Sally Bucciero, founder, Sally Bucciero Mortgage Group, LLC. “This value-added service of continuous tracking is offered as part of our fundamental services - clients know when they're working with us, we're working behind the scenes to ensure their financial success.”

Beyond pairing clients with a lender suitable for their needs, the company offers continued savings and additional personalized services at no cost, including equity management strategies, an annual mortgage review and rate watch report.
