

Pelladio Developers Announces Style Search Contest for Their 950MODE Condominium Project in Northern Liberties

Pelladio Developers and Philly Style Magazine are showcasing some of Philly's hottest designers with "Style Search": An interior design contest for Pelladio Developers' 950MODE condominium project in Northern Liberties. The contest launches June 21, at Philadelphia Style Magazine's Best of Style Party.

Philadelphia, PA, June 11, 2007 --(PR.com)-- Pelladio Developers and Philly Style Magazine are showcasing some of Philly's hottest designers in a unique contest and promotion called "Style Search" which invites anyone to vote online at 950MODE.com for the best interior design of a 2 bedroom condominium living space at 950MODE.

"The contest launches June 21, at Philadelphia Style Magazine's Best of Style Party and is being promoted in their magazine, phillystylemag.com and 950MODE.com," said Fred Potok, of Pelladio Developers.

"We are very excited to give condo buyers the opportunity to see 950MODE units designed by some of Philly's top talent and to vote on their favorite approach," continued Potok. "The winning designer will be commissioned by Pelladio Developers and their design services will be provided to our first four 950MODE condo buyers." continued Potok.

950MODE is a contemporary, brick, glass and metal facade building featuring 28 one, two and two-bedroom bi-level luxury condominiums with private balconies, beautiful kitchens, baths and state-of-the-art appliances. 950MODE is situated at Orianna Hill and Liberty Lands Parks, the only green location in Northern Liberties, one of Philadelphia's hottest neighborhoods. These amenities are coupled with the trend-setting style that is unique to the area; with its art galleries, boutiques, shops, cafes, restaurants, and great nightlife, plus the very best of Philly, right at your doorstep.

"Northern Liberties is a great neighborhood and one of the fastest growing in the country," continued Potok.
