

Atlanta Bridal Gown Designer Anne Barge Featured in June 2007 eLIFE Magazine

Internationally known wedding gown designer Anne Barge talks with eLIFE about her career and her Fall 2007 designs.

Atlanta, GA, June 11, 2007 --(PR.com)-- Internationally known bridal gown designer Anne Barge is the cover story in the June 2007 edition of eLIFE Magazine at elifemagazine.net. The video piece features a conversation with Barge about her career, including the inspirations for her designs and her fall 2007 collection.

"I was fascinated with every aspect of weddings ever since I was a young child," Barge tells eLIFE's Executive Editor Andrea Berry. "There wasn't ever anything else I wanted to do."

In addition to the feature on Barge, the June 2007 eLIFE edition profiles The 3 Inspirational Tenors - three classically trained, African American tenors who sing Christian and secular favorites, and Terrence "TAPS" Bennett, a dancer spreading the joy of tap in the Atlanta area through community and educational outreach.

eLIFE Magazine is an independent, interactive online magazine that features interesting people, places and possibilities through video pieces, podcasts and print stories.

###

Contact Information:

eLIFE Magazine

Sonya Harrison

404.745.0438

sharrison@elifemagazine.net

www.elifemagazine.net

Online Version of Press Release:

You can read the online version of this press release at: <http://www.pr.com/press-release/41565>

News Image:

