

Strictly FX Joins Toby Keith on the Big Dog Daddy Tour

Elk Grove Village, IL, June 21, 2007 --(PR.com)-- Live special effects company, Strictly FX, joins multi-platinum recording artist, Toby Keith, on the road for the 5th consecutive year. This time on the Big Dog Daddy tour.

The show features over 200 pieces of product including: a 20 second gerb waterfall, a barrage of confetti streamers and multi-colored flame projectors. The various effects are meticulously positioned throughout the stage and the truss above and then precisely choreographed to the live music.

The Big Dog Daddy tour begins on June 21st in Birmingham, Alabama and continues through September 23rd.

About Strictly FX:

Strictly FX is a live special effects company that specializes in pyrotechnics, laser shows, flame effects and confetti for sporting events, concert tours and corporate shows. Strictly FX has helped make great shows better worldwide, including the Dallas Cowboys, Toby Keith, Roger Waters and the Superbowl.

The company was founded in 1996 by industry veterans Mark Grega and Ted Maccabee on the principles of utmost client satisfaction and creating the most entertaining shows possible. Utilizing a full team of special effects designers and in-house art department, they've captured numerous industry awards.

With over 500 live shows performed a year, if you've been to a concert or caught a sporting event, there's a good chance you've seen some of their exciting work.

###

Contact Information:

Strictly FX, l.l.c.
Ted Maccabee
847-290-0272
sfxweb@strictlyfx.com
www.strictlyfx.com

Online Version of Press Release:

You can read the online version of this press release at: <http://www.pr.com/press-release/42814>

News Image:

