

The Kingdom Heirs Welcome New Piano Player

Sevierville, TN, June 22, 2007 --(PR.com)-- The Kingdom Heirs proudly welcome Andy Stringfield as the newest member of the group. Andy will join the group on August 6th, 2007 at Dollywood.

Andy Stringfield, 21 years old, is from Harriman, Tennessee. Andy was a sophomore at the University of Tennessee before getting his big break in gospel music by joining "The Stamps." Andy will remain with "The Stamps" until late July 2007 and his official debut with the Kingdom Heirs will be on Monday, August 6th, 2007 at Dolly Parton's theme park, Dollywood.

"We are so thrilled to have Andy join us and we feel he will be a wonderful addition to our group. He has a ton of talent and fits us very well, especially those of us who like golf & fishing." - Steve French, Manager

###

Contact Information:

The Kingdom Heirs
Jacob Timmons
865-774-9023
sales@sdwebpros.com
www.kingdomheirs.com

Online Version of Press Release:

You can read the online version of this press release at: <http://www.pr.com/press-release/42974>

News Image:

