Annandale, NJ, June 29, 2007 --(PR.com)-- GirlMogul (www.girlmogul.com) is proud to announce the launch of its website, www.girlmogul.com, home of the GirlMoguls. Who are the GirlMoguls? The GirlMoguls (Rose, Lily, Poppy and Daisy) are four girls who dream big and can do anything.

The GirlMogul site features the GirlMogul apparel line - a line of clothing with positive messages for girls (of all ages). Themes include “Future Rocket Scientist”, “Future Brain Surgeon” and “Future Leader of the Free World.” All four GirlMoguls are featured. Clothing comes in girls, adult, and infant sizes - because it's never too early (or late) to dream big.

The GirlMoguls were conceived by Andrea Stein, founder of GirlMogul. “While clothes shopping for my infant daughter, I found endless clothes designed with 'future princess' or 'cutie-pie' messages - seeming to suggest that little girls are all about image, not substance. With that, GirlMogul was born. GirlMogul aims to encourage girls' imagination, ambition and creativity through characters girls can identify with.” The GirlMoguls have distinct identities, but united ambitions.

The GirlMogul site also functions as a resource and online community to encourage and inspire girls to dream big. Features include the GirlMogul of the month and GirlMogul in the Act, honoring real life GirlMoguls.

“I am thrilled by this opportunity to bring the GirlMoguls to the world. Together we can provide our daughters with the positive role models, self esteem and confidence to enable self expression and lifelong achievement,” says Stein.
