

Homeschool Roundup Presents Options for Homeschooling in San Antonio

Homeschool conference at Our Lady of the Lake University on July 28th, 2007. Come and learn about homeschooling in San Antonio.

San Antonio, TX, July 05, 2007 --(PR.com)-- San Antonio Home Education Resources and Opportunities (H.E.R.O.) will host their 4th Annual Homeschool Roundup, July 28th, from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm at Our Lady of the Lake University in San Antonio, Texas. People new to homeschooling or still deciding if they want to homeschool can learn about homeschooling requirements, how to homeschool, and get answers to virtually any homeschooling question they might have. Experienced homeschoolers can sample curriculum, peruse possible extra-curricular activities, and just re-energize by attending a session by Andrew Pudewa or one of our other great speakers. There will be workshops, support groups, children's activities, museums, and much more. ArtsTeach will once again provide art activities for children, Dino George will make an appearance, and the Institute of Texan Cultures will have hands-on presentations of Texas culture. Visit www.sahero.org or call 210-587-2407 for more information.

San Antonio Home Education Resources and Opportunities is a non-profit, independent source for homeschooling information in the San Antonio area. H.E.R.O. provides access to opportunities and resources for home educators of all races, religions, philosophies, and education styles to expand and improve their home education experience.

###

Contact Information:

San Antonio Home Education Resources and Opportunities

Michelle Kretzschmar

210-587-2407

contact@homeedsa.com

www.sahero.org

Online Version of Press Release:

You can read the online version of this press release at: <http://www.pr.com/press-release/44278>