

Seven-Time Grammy Winner Toto is Trekking to The Ridgefield Playhouse

Ridgefield, CT, July 06, 2007 --(PR.com)-- Their hits include “Rosanna,” “Hold the Line” and “Africa,” to name a few and now, after nearly 30 years of playing music together and enjoying worldwide success, Toto has once again joined their creative forces and recorded what could be their most personal album yet, “Falling in Between.” However, there is nothing like the real thing—Toto, featuring Steve Lukather, Simon Phillips, Leland Sklar, Bobby Kimball, Greg Philliganes and Tony Spinner, will perform live on Monday, July 23 at 8 p.m. at The Ridgefield Playhouse for Movies and the Performing Arts. 95.9 Fox Classic Rock is the media sponsor.

In true rock 'n' roll spirit, Toto has continued to defy the trends and make the music they want to make. Touring around the world on the strength of their live performances year after year, insiders know they will get their money's worth seeing them in concert. Setting new standards in tour production with their “Mindfields” tour in 1999, Toto have built a strong touring presence as they demonstrate a sincere live and respect for multiple styles and genres of music enabling them to deftly cross over and play just about anything. So ... sit back and enjoy.
