

Local Business Selected as Semi-Finalist for $1000.00 Small Business Grant from IdeaCafe.com

The Ambassador's Touch became a semi-finalist, for the second year in a row, for a $1000.00 small business grant from IdeaCafe.com.

Dahlgren, VA, July 26, 2007 --(PR.com)-- Erica Davis of The Ambassador's Touch Inc. has been selected from 762 applicants as a semi-finalist in the running to receive a $1,000.00 small business grant from Idea Cafe.com, a top-rated small business website for small business. This is the second year as a semi-finalist.

The field of semi-finalists for this grant will be reduced to finalists and the winner will be determined by the vote of IdeaCafe.com's 32,000 members worldwide and announced online on August 15, 2007, Idea Cafe's 12th anniversary online.

The Ambassador's Touch Inc. is a full service, Nationwide concierge & event management company, providing personal services exclusive to corporations and hospitals (for their employees & staff), luxury condominiums (for their residents & guests), real estate agencies, and small businesses. Some of the services provided include on-site concierge services (ticket ordering, transportation, mobile dry cleaning, reservations, etc.), home/office organizing, travel planning, event management (corporate, holiday, weddings, birthdays, etc.), IT solutions (wireless, home networking, etc.), gift baskets, relocation assistance, and much more.

Francie Ward, CEO of IdeaCafe.com, explained that the semi-finalists for this grant, The Al Marks Inventive Mind Grant, "demonstrate an inventive approach which will inspire others who come to IdeaCafe.com seeking advice on starting and running a business, plus they have a plan to reach out and help others in some way."

IdeaCafe.com, online since 1995, is known for its "Fun Approach to Serious Business" (sm) and popular CyberSchmooz community forum to help small businesses get informed, network and thrive.
