

Whatsmybiz.com Offers Web Site Builder for .mobi, Helping .mobi Owners Build Mobile Web Sites

Whatsmybiz.com positions itself to help business owners take advantage of the coming .mobi boom.

Scottsdale, AZ, August 27, 2007 --(PR.com)-- Whatsmybiz.com offers the popular WebSite Tonight® product, providing key features for those yearning to get involved in the .MOBI revolution.

Now anyone can design and create a .MOBI-compliant Web site easily and affordably. Pages designed for .MOBI are optimized for on-the-go devices, making them easy to load and navigate from the smaller, more limited screens of wireless phones and PDAs.

A recent quote from our CEO, Anthony Rodriguez, "Whatsmybiz.com has empowered our business owners to position their businesses for the coming .mobi boom."

For more information about the .MOBI revolution, visit Whatsmybiz.com.
