

Ladies of Reggae: The Trinity Tour

A live performance showcase featuring Jamaica's premiere female artists

Fort Lauderdale, FL, September 01, 2007 --(PR.com)-- Jamstar Productions has announced the launching of the Ladies of Reggae: the Trinity showcase. The showcase was developed in an effort to increase the awareness of talented female artists in the reggae music industry. The first showcase plans to deliver live performances by Marcia Griffiths (the Queen of Reggae), Diana King (Reggae/R&B Superstar) and one other female artist yet to be determined. The 3 women will represent some of Jamaica's most prolific talent and their pioneering creativity will be showcased in this unprecedented tour.

The fall series will include a tour of approximately 9 cities including major metropolitan areas such as New York City, Hartford, Boston, Chicago, and St Louis. The tour will kick-off in New York on October 18th and run through October 27th.

###

Contact Information:

Jamstar Productions, LLC

Donald Harpe

305-822-9499

info@jamstarproductions.com

www.jamstarproductions.com

Online Version of Press Release:

You can read the online version of this press release at: <http://www.pr.com/press-release/50684>