

247 Workspace Wins Silicon Valley Business Journal's Fast 50 Award

Nationwide provider of Mid Market Office Furniture Ranked among the Fastest Growing Privately Held Companies in the Silicon Valley

Morgan Hill, CA, September 26, 2007 --(PR.com)-- Mark Denham, President of 247 Workspace, has announced that the firm has won the Silicon Valley Business Journal's 2007 Fast 50 Award, which recognizes the fastest growing privately held companies in the Silicon Valley. The Morgan Hill based 247 Workspace ranked 22nd overall on the list of 50, and was the top office furniture provider honored. The survey, evaluated by Armanino McKenna LLP, ranked companies based on their revenues and percentage of growth over a three-year period. The firm was honored at an awards ceremony on September 20th held at the Hyatt Regency in Santa Clara, CA.

247 Workspace, a full-service online office furniture provider, received the award for the second year in a row. Last year the company moved into a new 50,000-square-foot facility in Morgan Hill to consolidate all of their operations into one building with a larger showroom, a preview/staging area, expanded warehousing and administrative offices. The company currently has its headquarters at 18675 Madrone Parkway, Morgan Hill, CA. A growing nationwide and international client base and a need to have all its offices under one roof prompted the change in an effort to better serve clients.

“We are very proud to win this year's Fast 50 award,” said Denham. “It caps off a great year for us at 247 Workspace and follows our recent celebration of 9 years of operation. To be honored with this award shows how hard our staff is working to provide the best customer experience for all of our clients. With the continuing support of our employees and customers, we anticipate more growth in future years.”
