

Green Company Goes Pink for Breast Cancer Awareness Month

Local Company, Repurposed4you.com, is launching its exclusive line of Pink Ribbon Bra Purses offered for a limited time with proceeds benefiting breast cancer awareness.

Cape Coral, FL, October 05, 2007 --(PR.com)-- In 2007, 178,480 new cases of invasive breast cancer are expected in women in the U.S.

Repurposed4you.com, usually a very green company, is thinking pink for the month of October. Adorable little Pink Ribbon Bra Purses show the company's creativity and generosity as $10 of the proceeds of each purse will benefit the Breast Cancer Research Foundation. Repurposed4you.com owner Shelly Blunt stated, "I am proud to have an item that has gone full circle. Originally made to 'support', they continue to show 'support' as they still hold your valuables but also give to a worthy cause."

Breast Cancer Research Foundation is an independent not-for-profit organization whose mission is to achieve prevention and a cure for breast cancer in our lifetime by providing critical funding for innovative clinical and genetic research at leading medical centers worldwide, and increasing public awareness about good breast health.

Repurposed4you.com is an eco-friendly on-line retailer offering a variety of products for you and your home. Made from recycled, repurposed and reclaimed materials, products range from personal to home accessories and all are made by the earth conscience artists just trying to do a world of good.

###

Contact Information:

repurposed4you.com

Shelly Blunt

239 573 8483

shelly@repurposed4you.com

www.repurposed4you.com

Online Version of Press Release:

You can read the online version of this press release at: <http://www.pr.com/press-release/54809>