

Mellow Sounds from New Artist Vincent - Check Out His Music Downloads

New "New Age" artist, VINCENT has music downloads and album for sale on his website, and at CDBaby.com artist page. Vincent's music has the romantic tones of Yanni, the celtic beats of Enya, and the symphonic fanfare of John Williams.

Danville, VA, October 12, 2007 --(PR.com)-- On Friday October 12, 2007 new "New Age" artist, Vincent will be selling music downloads from his album, "Cascade of Emotions." Vincent is from Danville, Virginia, a quaint small town in Southern Virginia USA.

Vincent's music ranges from mellow feel good tones to robust symphonic fanfares. "Most people would say my music reminds them of the romantic songs of Yanni, mixed with the celtic beats of Enya and the beautiful symphonic sounds of John Williams," says Vincent.

Vincent is a writer, artist, music composer, and movie maker. Vincent's company, VW Productions produces quality animated movies and music that anyone can enjoy and is suitable for families. Some of Vincent's music is used in his animated films of various genre. Don't forget to check out his movie page. There are links from his music page to his movie page.

If you're a big "Star Wars" fan then you'll probably like his sci- fi movie, "The Fall of Telgar." The music from the soundtrack is for sale on his website. You can listen to the music tracks and download individual songs or the entire album. If you prefer a physical album instead of a download you can do that instead.

So please don't forget to check out Vincent's music and movie downloads Friday October 12, 2007. Listen to the mellow sounds of Vincent's music and watch his exciting action filled movies and download them if you like.

Go to <http://www.vwitcher.com/movie.htm> to see Vincent's work.

###

Contact Information:

VW Productions

Vincent Witcher

252-326-3952

vwitcher@juno.com

www.vwitcher.com/movie.htm

(434) 822-5482 home phone #

Online Version of Press Release:

You can read the online version of this press release at: <http://www.pr.com/press-release/55985>

News Image:

