Sugar Land, TX, October 23, 2007 --(PR.com)-- KVMTools.com a leading value-added reseller today announced that it now offers more than 400 manufacturers offering the large selection of power tools, air tools and hand tools as well as fasteners, and accessories available at guaranteed lowest prices.

KVM Headquarters, parent company of KVM Tools is very excited about the success and growth of KVM Tools. Customers can select their chosen products either by clicking on one of the categories in the left-hand navigation or by using the search function. For those who want a more defined search, the advanced search function allows customers to search by term with the added benefit of allowing brand(s) to be selected. KVM Tools has highly qualified account managers who will guide customers through every step of the checkout process, in order to ensure a smooth and seamless order process.

"The variation of products available on KVM Tools website now allows the customers to get all of their construction projects done on time and on budget." said Donald O Malley, Product Manager at KVM Headquarters.
