

Six-Year-Old Musician Ethan Bortnick to Perform at The 20th Anniversary Celebration of Showboats International Boys & Girls Club Rendezvous at Fisher Island

Other performers that will take part at the event are The Village People, The Pointer Sisters, Gloria Gayner and The Blues Brothers Revue.

Miami, FL, November 08, 2007 --(PR.com)-- Ethan Bortnick, who started playing piano at the age of four, has already made a name for himself by performing on "The Tonight Show with Jay Leno," "Good Morning America," CBS's "The Early Show," "Martha Stewart" and "Access Hollywood." He impressed singer-songwriter Nelly Furtado so much that she asked him to open for her 2007 tour kickoff in front of 5,000 fans.

Ethan's performance at the 20th Anniversary Celebration is scheduled at 8pm on November 10, 2007. Ethan will be performing as one of many celebrity performers. Other performers that will take part at the event are The Village People, The Pointer Sisters, Gloria Gayner and The Blues Brothers Revue.

This event is a charity fundraiser for the Boys and Girls Clubs of Broward County (BGCBC). The Boys & Girls Clubs of Broward County (BGCBC) is a non-profit 501(c)(3) private agency, dedicated to helping young people improve their lives by building self-esteem and developing values and skills during their critical period of growth. Serving more than 13,000 at-risk youth, ages 7-18 each year from its 13 Broward County-area clubs, their purpose is to inspire and enable children to realize their full potential as productive, responsible and caring citizens. Chosen as the #1 youth agency in the country three years in a row by The Chronicle of Philanthropy and one of the best run non-profit agencies in a study by Fortune 500, BGCBC keeps 98 percent of all raised funds in Broward County. Boys & Girls Clubs of Broward County is located at 877 NW 61st Street Fort Lauderdale, FL 33309.
