Los Angeles, CA, November 27, 2007 --(PR.com)-- If one had to think of the perfect "classic cool" sunglasses it would be hard to top the Persol 714 folding sunglasses. This limited release item is now available at <http://www.eyegoodies.com> . The classic timeless design is not only distinct from all the look a like sunglasses made today, but the craftsmanship of the frame also stands far apart from the rest and features a folding design for that extra cool factor.

Sunglasses Collectors have long sought after the frame, as the Persol 714 has not been produced for decades. By popular demand the Persol 714 is back in the exact original form, and eyegoodies.com has them.

Also as many of you are aware one of the most regarded Persol 714's of Steve McQueen was a pair with custom tinted blue lenses, to pay tribute to this eyegoodies.com will be offering these exclusively for a very limited time (in addition to the standard Persol 714). However, be warned this is a limited production and inventory will be very limited on this highly idolized frame.

Persol 714 sunglasses are without a doubt among the greatest sunglasses ever created and deserve a place in every mans sunglass collection.
